7:08:15 PM QUESTIONS TO THE MAYOR FROM THE CITY COUNCIL

Councilmember Simonsen said a number of vehicles showed up today on the Granite Blocks. He said he had received a number of constituent inquiries throughout the day about whether a demolition would proceed without a permit. He said no permit had been issued based on information obtained from the Planning Division. He said he wanted to review the ordinance and make sure appropriate decisions were made before demolition permits were issued. Acting Mayor Sam Guevara said he did not have an answer but would find out the details and get back to him.

7:10:12 PM COMMENTS TO THE CITY COUNCIL

Douglas Cotant asked for information on the Transportation Advisory Board. He asked if that board had anything to do with the Utah Transit Authority (UTA). He also asked what happened to the meetings that used to be held about UTA buses and routes. He asked why the meetings were discontinued.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

#1. 7:11:19 PM RE: Approving the appointment of Joanne Lovejoy to the Police Civilian Review Board for a term extending through September 6, 2010.

Councilmember Turner moved and Councilmember Love seconded to approve the appointment.

Councilmember Saxton said she would be voting against the appointment. She said she wanted Ms. Lovejoy to understand that it was not against her or her abilities. She said Ms. Lovejoy would be an asset and she was appreciative of people willing to serve on committees. She said this was an important committee and it needed to function correctly, not only for those who serve but also because of the delicate nature of the board.

Councilmember Christensen called for the vote, which motion carried, all members voted aye except Councilmember Saxton who voted nay.
